

SEX OR KIDNAPPING OFFENDER INFORMATION BULLETIN LEVEL 3 NOTIFICATION OF RELEASE

SPECIAL ASSAULT UNIT SEX AND KIDNAPPING OFFENDER REGISTRATION DETAIL

Bulletin # : 03-10

Census distribution: 81, 85, 91, 92 PREPARED BY DET. ROBERT A. SHILLING

DATE: 2/5/2003

The Seattle Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550 and the Washington State Supreme Court decision in State v. Ward, which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex or kidnapping offenders release when; in the discretion of the agency, the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individual who appears on this notification has been convicted of a sex or kidnapping offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of their residence. Further, their previous criminal history places them in a classification level which reflects the potential to re-offend.

This sex or kidnapping offender has served the sentence imposed on him by the courts and has advised the King County Department of Public Safety that he will be living in the location below. HE IS NOT WANTED BY THE POLICE AT THIS TIME. THIS NOTIFICATION IS NOT INTENDED TO INCREASE FEAR; RATHER, IT IS OUR BELIEF THAT AN INFORMED PUBLIC IS A SAFER PUBLIC.

The Seattle Police Department has no legal authority to direct where a sex or kidnapping offender may or may not live. Unless court ordered restrictions exist, this offender is constitutionally free to live wherever he chooses.

Sex and kidnapping offenders have always lived in our communities; but it wasn't until passage of the Community Protection Act of 1990 (which mandates sex and kidnapping offender registration) that law enforcement even knew where they were living. In many cases, law enforcement is now able to share that information with you. Citizen abuse of this information to threaten, intimidate or harass registered sex or kidnapping offenders will not be tolerated. Further, such abuse could potentially end law enforcement's ability to do community notifications. We believe the only person who wins if community notification ends is the sex or kidnapping offender, since they derive their power through secrecy.

The Seattle Police Department distributes these notices to organized Block Watches via Community Crime Prevention. If you wish to set up a Block Watch, receive crime prevention or personal safety information, call 206-684-7555. If you have information regarding current criminal activity of this or any other offender, please call 9-1-1.

Jamie Miguel Aguilar was released from prison after completing his sentence for Attempted Child Molestation in the Second Degree. The victims in this case were two boys, 13 years old, who were playing in the Cedar River. Aguilar did not know the victims. In 1980, Aguilar was convicted of Indecent Liberties. The victims in this case were a six-year-old boy and a six-year-old girl. Aguilar knew neither victim. Their father left the victims in a vehicle while he ran inside his wife's place of employment to pick her up. Aguilar entered the vehicle and molested the children. In 1976, Aguilar was convicted of Communicating with a Minor for Immoral Purposes. He was originally charged with Rape 2 and Statutory Rape. The victims in this case were two boys, 15 and 16, who were not known to Aguilar. Aguilar invited the boys to his apartment for some beer. Once in his apartment he sexually assaulted them. Aguilar has 6 additional felony convictions including a 1953 conviction for kidnapping a police officer. He has spent most of his adult life in prison and has had no sexual deviancy treatment. Aguilar is considered a high risk to reoffend especially if he returns to drinking. Aguilar is not under the supervision of the Department of Corrections. He has registered as a sex offender as required by law and is living as homeless in the Pioneer Square area. This bulletin is being re-issued due to a recent change of address.
